Basic hotel in a dense locality

Review of North Star Residency
 Reviewed 29 September 2019

About 1 km from railway station. It is on a busy street hosting variety of businesses. What you see from the street is a bank. By climbing stairs passing by the bank, you will reach the hotel. Sign board is visible from far but once you reach nearby you may have to ask people.

Small room just enough to spend a night. Geyser is available in bathroom and gives hot water. Generally neat. Staff are friendly. There is kitchen but no dining room. Room service has vegetarian and non-vegetarian options.
